BHOPAL

Even as the authorities are struggling to authenticate three videos and audios making rounds on social media, another video in connection with MLA Hemant Katare surfaced on Monday. Police are going to verify the authenticity of the new video messages connected with the case.

In the new video, Katare is seen having a 'business deal' with Vikarmjeet Singh, one of the associates of 21-year old journalism student, currently in jail for allegedly extorting money from the MLA.

Earlier on Sunday three audio messages went viral in which the girl and Katare are heard discussing business. The two also speak about the amount and about persons who are aware of the entire case.

Police are tight lipped over taking any action against the Congress

Katara, girl's associate enter into deal

The video ostensibly shows MLA Hemant Katara the victim girl's associate Vikarmjeet Singh discussing a deal. The face of Vikarmjeet is slightly visible and it appears that Hemant Katara was sitting next to him. From the conversation, it is clear what the deal is about. It can only be assumed that they are talking about the amount to be given by Katara to the woman. During the course of the conversation, Hemant asks Vikarmjeet how many people know about the affair. Vikarmjeet replies that four people know about it - Rameshwar, Arvind Bhadoria, Girish and one more. He also says that "Today is the deadline for settling the deal and if it is not done, Rameshwar and Arvind Bhadoria will be taking up the issue." The identity of Rameshwar is not clear but Arvind Bhadoria is a BJP state vice-president and had contested the by-election against Katara from Ater and had lost it.

MLA who on the girl's complaint has been booked on charges of abduction and rape.

IG intelligence Makrand Deuskar informed that police have instituted inquiry into the messages that have gone viral on social media. "We have started collecting these messages. The digital authentication of the messages will be carried out," said IG.

Without proper authentication, the messages cannot be used as evidence in court and the department will follow set procedure to verify electronic evidences, Deuskar said.

Women police will record the statement of the girl under section 164.

Case against the MLA was booked on Friday, however, police is still to initiate any action in this connection. On Sunday, for the Girl gets bail in extortion case

The accused girl on Monday got bail in extortion case. Accepting her bail application, the court of VI ADJ, Bhopal has directed the girl to appear twice at police station every month. She will be released on Tuesday from the jail. The girl's advocate, Akash Telang informed that court granted bail to the girl on the security of Rs 1 lakh. She has been instructed to appear before the investigating officer at Crime branch police station on 1st and 15th of every month. On January 24, the Crime branch police caught the girl red handed accepting Rs 5 lakh from MLA Katara. The MLA had filed the case against the girl for blackmailing him and the Crime branch had registered the case against her. The girl was sent to jail on judicial custody. While in prison, the girl had written a letter to DIG Bhopal accusing the MLA of sexually assaulting her. The Women police station had registered a case against the MLA on her complaint.

verification of the crime spot police had taken the girl to Juna gym where she was allegedly sexually assaulted by the MLA.

Refusing to speak over the matter, Women police station in-charge Sikha Bais said that higher officials were monitoring the case and they will update about the development in the case.

She also refused to comment on the messages going viral on the social media. Similarly, ASP Crime branch Rashmi Mishra also declined to give any updates in connection with the case. The crime branch had arrested the girl and booked her for extorting money from Katara. Since it is a high profile case, higher officials are monitoring it and only they are in position to give correct information of the case, she added.

Varsities, colleges ignore cultural calendar

● OUR STAFF REPORTER
BHOPAL

The universities and colleges don't seem to follow the cultural calendar issued by co-ordination committee of state universities. The cultural calendar was issued in 2012 with an aim to motivate students by informing them about eminent personalities including Indian sages, leaders, scientists etc.

The colleges were asked to hold programmes as per the calendar so that students would know about the life and contribution of eminent personalities to India and world. The cultural calendar includes two lists. The first list includes 36 important dates like birth and death anniversaries of eminent people and second includes the details of festivals. A monitoring committee was formed to review implementation of calendar in degree colleges and universities in MP. However, cultural calendar is not followed. Former higher education department joint director Prof K M Jain said that cultural calendar scheme was put in cold bag after 2015.

Minister seeks votes for BJP in the name of Rajmata

● OUR STAFF REPORTER
BHOPAL / SHIVPURI

Putting the speculations over whether minister Yashodhararaje Scindia will aid the BJP's poll effort in the Kolaras and Mungaoli constituencies to rest, the chief minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan, on Monday, took her along in his chopper to Kolaras for the filing of the nomination papers of Devendra Jain, the BJP candidate from Kolaras. Chouhan and Yashodhararaje jointly sought votes for Jain in the name of Rajmata. Union minister Narendra Singh Tomar also accompanied them.

The three leaders staged a road show as an answer to Congress MP Jyotiraditya Scindia's show of strength at the time of the filing of the nomination by the party's candidate.

The chief minister and Scindia rode in an open Bolero jeep. Waving their hands, they greeted the people and asked them to vote for the BJP. As four-wheelers were not allowed within 200-mt radius of the SDM office, Yashodhararaje got down from the jeep and rode pillion on the bike driven by district BJP President Sushil Raghuvanshi to the SDM's office, where Jain filed his papers.

Addressing a public meeting after the filing of papers, Tomar said that Kolaras is the erstwhile constituency of Rajmata Vijayaraje Scindia and the people should vote for the BJP to fulfill the dream of the Rajmata. The Rajmata, he said, was like a motherly figure of the residents of the constituency and they should vote for the BJP to open the door of progress. In his speech, Chouhan launched a bitter attack on the Congress. He said that the Congress is trying to block developmental projects in the area by making frivolous complaints. He said that Congress was responsible for stalling a project for sinking of hand pumps in the area and was also trying to block the release of crop insurance and relief amounts to the farmers.

Yashodhararaje had not visited the twin constituencies even once since the announcement of the by-polls, thus fuelling speculations that this may hit the BJP's prospects. Now with Yashodhararaje agreeing to join the campaign, the BJP is fixing the schedule of her public meetings in the area so that she can counter the influence of Jyotiraditya.

State's first on-station clinic starts operation at Bhopal Stn

● OUR STAFF REPORTER
BHOPAL

State's first on-station round-the clock clinic started its operation here at Bhopal railway station. The clinic, run by Chirayu Hospital, started its operation at platform no-1. In the coming time, this clinic will take shape of a mini-hospital, claim Railway officials. The decision to operate a medical unit at the railway station comes as a huge relief to passengers specially those who are on long journey.

In order to provide medical assistance to passengers Railway authorities had invited private hospitals to operate the clinic at the station.

The unit is well equipped with doctor and paramedical staff to deal with any emergency situation with provision for rendering first aid, life-saving medicines and equipment to meet any exigencies. Railway has provided space to run the medical facility at the platform at no cost; besides it will also bear water and electricity charges.

Railway Board Chairman Ashwani Lohani, during his visit recently, had stated that medical facility will come into existence at the station in February. Lohani had instructed the authorities to speed up the work regarding setting up of clinic or hospital at the railway station.

Speaking about the clinic, DRM Shobhan Chaudhary said that Chirayu Hospital has started operating clinic at Bhopal Railway station platform no-1. Paliwal Hospital had also shown interest in running the medical facility but later back-tracked so finally Chirayu Hospital was chosen for the purpose. "The clinic will soon take shape of well-equipped mini-hospital," claimed the DRM.

Western Central Railways Employees Union (WCRU) has welcomed the initiative of running a clinic at Railways station. WCRU president Philips Oman said, "It is good decision of the Railways to start a clinic at the station and it should be expanded. It was the need of the hour as passengers on long route trains will be able to get medical care at the platform itself."

After seeking info, Raj Bhawan turns defensive

● OUR STAFF REPORTER
BHOPAL

After seeking information on their working from all the government departments, Raj Bhawan seems to have developed cold feet.

On January 29, Raj Bhawan had written to all additional chief secretaries and principal secretaries and asked them to submit the annual reports and give presentations on achievements and activities of their departments before the Governor. Monday was the deadline for submission of sought information and documents. When asked whether the information has come in, Shaileendra Kiyawat, additional secretary in the Governor's secretariat said that only principal secretary would be able to comment on it. The Raj Bhawan PRO refused to acknowledge that any such information was sought. Sources said that while most of the departments have submitted the documents, the officers are in two minds vis-à-vis the presentation part. There is no tradition of officers making presentations before Governor and the bureaucrats fear that they may get caught in an embarrassing position if the issue assumes the form of a confrontation between state government and Raj Bhawan.

Share market will soon revive from initial jolt, assure CAs

● OUR STAFF REPORTER
BHOPAL

Chartered accountants here have expressed hope that share market would soon revive from initial jolt over reintroduction of long-term capital gains (LTCG) tax on equities in the Budget. The fall in the share market happened after finance minister Arun Jaitley announced in his Budget speech LTCG tax rate at 10% for gains exceeding Rs 1 lakh.

They were participating at a seminar on Budget - 2018 organised by Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) on Monday. The CAs discussed at lengths the tax proposals in the budget. Speaking at the seminar,

CA Abhay Chhajed, said that currently share market is in bearish mode but it will soon start reviving. With the tax proposed, the Union government expects Rs 20,000 crore gain in 2018, while the figure will touch Rs 40,000 crore next year. Ms Indira Gandhi had proposed same tax proposal during her tenure, informed Chhajed. The government has reduced the corporate tax rate for companies with an annual turnover of up to Rs 250 crore to 25% and this 5 per cent relief will benefit the micro, small and medium enterprises (MSMEs). Previously, companies with turnover of above Rs 50 crore came under this slab.

Nearly, 7,000 companies coming under the 25 per cent tax slab. ICAI chairman (Bhopal chapter) CA Alok Srivastava said that tax proposals were main points of discussion at the seminar. Direct taxes, GST, equity share and mutual funds and others things were discussed in details, he informed.
